

Redistricting the Bibb County School District

Miller v. Bibb County School District
(Hugh Lawson, M.D. Ga. 5:12-cv-239)

Three voters, including a school board member and two school board candidates, filed a federal complaint in the Middle District of Georgia on June 26, 2012, alleging malapportionment of districts for the Bibb County Board of Education.¹ With their complaint, the plaintiffs filed a motion for an injunction against planned July 31 elections until the county adopted a precleared redistricting plan adopted by Georgia's legislature.²

Judge Hugh Lawson set the matter for hearing on June 29.³ That day, he enjoined the county from using old district lines for the school board, and he delayed the primary elections for the school board from July 31 until August 21, the day for primary runoffs for other offices.⁴

By consent order, on December 7, Judge Lawson awarded the plaintiffs $60,000 in attorney fees and costs.⁵
