

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

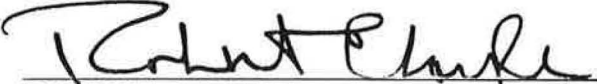

RE:)
)
CIVIL JUSTICE REFORM ACT) GENERAL ORDER NO. 284
OF 1990)
_____)

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 471, et seq., the court appointed a Civil Justice Reform Act Advisory Group for purposes of evaluating the court's present case management practice and thereafter making recommendations designed to reduce cost and delay associated with the adjudication of civil litigation in the Eastern District of California. The Advisory Group has completed its findings and submitted its final report to the court on November 21, 1991 (attached hereto as Appendix 1). The court and the Advisory Group have reviewed and considered all of the measures as set forth in 28 U.S.C. § 473. Having read and considered the recommendations contained therein, the court hereby adopts said final report in its entirety, including the recommended measures, rules and programs in the proposed 16 point Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan. Inasmuch as the court intends to be an early implementation district (EID), attached hereto is the Civil Justice Expense and Delay Reduction Plan for the Eastern District of California (Appendix 2) drafted and adopted by this court to be implemented effective December 31, 1991.

DATED: December 26, 1991.

FOR THE COURT:

ROBERT E. COYLE, Chief Judge
Eastern District of California
