

Mailing Overseas Absentee Ballots on Time in Georgia in 2004

United States v. Georgia

(Charles A. Pannell, Jr., N.D. Ga. 1:04-cv-2040)

On July 13, 2004, the Justice Department filed a federal complaint against Georgia in the Northern District of Georgia claiming that several counties had failed to mail overseas voters their absentee ballots in time to be returned by the day of July 20 primary elections, and the planned runoff date of August 10 did not allow for enough time to mail overseas voters absentee ballots, as required by the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act of 1986 (UOCAVA).<sup>1</sup> With its complaint, the Department filed a motion for a temporary restraining order and a preliminary injunction.<sup>2</sup>

On the same day, Georgia's secretary of state filed a motion seeking similar relief in a 2003 case that resulted in court-ordered redistricting for Georgia's legislature.<sup>3</sup>

Judge Charles A. Pannell, Jr., who had been assigned the 2003 case, heard the motions in court on July 14 and agreed to grant immediate injunctive relief.<sup>4</sup> On July 15, Judge Pannell issued written orders providing the following relief for overseas voters: (1) Georgia will accept faxed ballots, (2) Georgia will accept Internet-based write-in absentee ballots, (3) Georgia will pay for express delivery of absentee ballots, and (4) absentee ballots will be accepted until three days after the election if mailed by election day.<sup>5</sup>

The 2004 action was dismissed by stipulation on July 25, 2005.<sup>6</sup>
