

Unsuccessful Attempt to Block Electoral College Votes

Shtino v. Carlin

(Alexander Williams, Jr., D. Md. 8:00-cv-3699)

A pro se plaintiff filed a federal complaint in the District of Maryland on December 21, 2000, to enjoin the Archivist of the United States, whose office is in Maryland, from presenting Florida's electoral college votes.¹ Judge Alexander Williams, Jr., denied the plaintiff relief that same day.²

Following Congress's January 6, 2001, certification³ of the December 18, 2000, electoral college vote in favor of George W. Bush,⁴ Judge Alexander dismissed the action on January 8.⁵ Judge Alexander denied a motion for reconsideration on February 21.⁶
