¹ Although counsel for the Government has advised that a decision has not yet been made whether to seek the death penalty in this case, the statute requiring appointment of learned counsel upon a federal capital Defendant's request does not require, as a precondition, that the Government announce its intent to seek the death penalty. United States v. Boone, 245 F.3d 352, 358 (4th Cir.2001) (holding "§ 3005 provides an absolute statutory right to two attorneys in cases where death penalty may be imposed..."); United States v. Ledbetter, No. 14-127 2015 WL 3463558, at* 2 (S.D.Ohio June 1, 2015) (Noting Fourth Circuit standard under Boone), but see also U.S. v. Shepperson, 739 F.3d 176, 179 (4th Cir. 2014) (No affirmative duty to appoint a second attorney under § 3005 absent a request from the Defendant); Boone, 245 F.3d at 359, n. 7.
