CRIMINAL ACTION NO. 1:09-CR-15

ORDER

At the final pretrial hearing on March 29, 2010, attorneys for both the Government and the Defendants stated to the court that they have reviewed the Jury Questionnaire and have no objections to its form or content. Accordingly, the court orders this Jury Questionnaire be entered into the docket of the instant criminal action. This questionnaire will be completed by the entire venire panel on April 6, 2010, and April 7, 2010, and utilized in the jury selection process. At the conclusion of the proceedings, the parties are ordered to return all paper and electronic copies of the completed jury questionnaires to Judge Crone's chambers.

SIGNED at Beaumont, Texas, this 1st day of April, 2010.

MARCIA A. CRONE
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

PRESUMPTION OF INNOCENCE

66. A defendant is presumed to be innocent of all charges made against him. The question of a potential penalty will not arise unless the government proves to the jury that the defendant is guilty beyond a reasonable doubt. The jury will be instructed that a defendant is presumed to be innocent throughout the trial and that a defendant cannot be found guilty of any offense until the government has proven each element of that offense beyond a reasonable doubt. Would you find it difficult for any reason to obey that instruction?

_____ Yes _____ No

If yes, please explain: _____

RIGHT TO REMAIN SILENT

67. The jury will be instructed that a defendant in a criminal case has a constitutional right to testify or not to testify in his own defense; that the burden of proof is always on the government; that a defendant is under no obligation to present any evidence; and that no inference or suggestion of guilt can be drawn against a defendant because he elects not to testify or present evidence. Would you find it difficult for any reason to obey that instruction? _____ Yes _____ No

If yes, please explain: _____

68. Will you be able to follow the Judge's instructions and find the defendants guilty or not guilty of the charges based ONLY on the evidence, without consideration of the possible punishment? _____ Yes _____ No

DEATH PENALTY

69. Please describe your feelings about the death penalty in your own words. Additionally, please indicate how strong they are, how long you have held them, and whether you ever had a different perspective about the death penalty:

70. Regarding the death penalty, which of the following statements most accurately represents the way you feel? (You may circle one statement or more than one statement):

- a. I feel that my opposition to the death penalty will make it difficult for me as a juror to reach a verdict of guilty or not guilty, regardless of the facts and law in the case.
- b. If a person is convicted of a capital crime and the death penalty is requested, I will always vote to impose it, regardless of the facts and the law in the case.
- c. I am strongly in favor of the death penalty, and I would have a difficult time voting against it, regardless of the facts and the law in the case.
- d. I generally favor the death penalty, but I would base a decision to impose it on the facts and the law in the case.
- e. I have no opinion either for or against the death penalty, and I could base a decision to impose it on the facts and the law in the case.
- f. I am generally opposed to the death penalty, but I believe I can put aside my feelings against the death penalty and impose it if it is called for by the facts and law in the case.
- g. I am strongly opposed to the death penalty, and I will have a difficult time voting to impose it, regardless of the facts and the law in the case.
- h. I am personally, morally, or religiously opposed to the death penalty, and I would never vote to impose it, regardless of the facts and the law in the case.

71. Regarding the death penalty, which of the following statements most accurately represents the way you feel?
