ORDER

JUDGE JAMES P. JONES

The defendant has filed a Motion for Jury Lists and Qualification Questionnaires, ECF No. 86. It appearing proper, see 28 U.S.C. § 1867(f), Test v. United States, 420 U.S. 28, 30 (1975), the government not objecting, the motion is GRANTED to the extent that the Clerk is hereby directed to disclose to defendant's counsel or his expert Jeffrey Martin the contents of records or papers used by the Clerk or by a contractor of the Clerk in connection with the process of selecting the Grand Jury that indicted the defendant on November 11, 2020. In addition, the Clerk is hereby further directed to disclose, to the extent they are available, the contents of records or papers used by the Clerk or by a contractor of the Clerk in connection with the selection of the petit jury venire for the trial of the defendant, which is now scheduled to begin on May 2, 2022, using a venire from the Big Stone Gap Division of this Court.

The persons mentioned above shall be allowed to inspect, reproduce, and copy such records and papers at all reasonable times. In no event shall personally identifiable information of any individual be disclosed.

It is so ORDERED.
