

CLE materials for

FJC-Wm. Matthew Byrne, Jr., Judicial Clerkship Institute, Pepperdine University – A Judge’s Perspective on Crafting a Successful Term or Career Clerkship (Virtual Program)

The Federal Judicial Center has provided the attached materials to assist courts in program planning and in applying for continuing legal education (CLE) credit for the webinar FJC-Wm. Matthew Byrne, Jr., Judicial Clerkship Institute, Pepperdine University – A Judge’s Perspective on Crafting a Successful Term or Career Clerkship (Virtual Program). The materials include program description, faculty biography, a continuing legal education application form, and a certificate of attendance for the virtual program.

The Center is unable to process individual applications for CLE credit, and therefore there is no preapproval, but these materials will help you facilitate the process in your court. Each individual attorney is responsible for submitting an application for CLE and for making any payments that are required. The Center does not have course numbers for the jurisdictions; you will have to acquire that information once you apply for CLE credit in the jurisdiction for which you desire credit. (Please note that due to jurisdiction requirements the FJC will apply for CLE credit in Mississippi, Ohio, Tennessee, Texas and West Virginia if participants indicate on their registration that they require credit in those jurisdictions.) With regard to the Court Training Specialist signature that is required on the Certificate of Attendance, you can have your court’s Training Coordinator/Training Specialist or Human Resources Specialist/Human Resources Manager sign the certificate. (The FJC does not sign this document.) After it is signed, please submit the form to the CLE Commission or State Bar for which you seek credit. We strongly recommend that you contact your state’s CLE board for information about CLE requirements, which vary from state to state.

Pennsylvania:

The Pennsylvania Continuing Legal Education Board requirements for obtaining credit for “distance learning” programming are outside the realm of what the FJC can accommodate. Deadlines, strict requirements and required interactivity mechanisms are just a few of the obstacles that we cannot overcome. The FJC has made an effort with PACLE to loosen some of their restrictions but was not successful.

If you have any questions about the CLE application process please contact Rhonda Starks at 202-502-4059 or rstarks@fjc.gov. If you have any questions about the program in general please contact Maureen Kieffer at 202-502-4050 or mkieffer@fjc.gov.

Jeremy D. Fogel,
Judge

The Honorable Jeremy Fogel became the first executive director in 2018 of the Berkeley Judicial Institute, a center at Berkeley Law School whose mission is to build bridges between judges and academics and to promote an ethical, resilient and independent judiciary. Prior to his appointment at Berkeley, he served as director of the Federal Judicial Center (FJC) in Washington, D.C. from 2011 to 2018, as a U.S. district judge for the Northern District of California from 1998 to 2011, and as a judge of the Santa Clara County Superior and Municipal Courts from 1986 to 1998 and from 1981 to 1986, respectively. He was the founding directing attorney of the Mental Health Advocacy Project from 1978 to 1981.

Judge Fogel has served as a faculty member for the FJC since 2002 and was a lecturer at Stanford Law School from 2003 until his relocation to Washington. He taught for the California Continuing Judicial Studies Program and California Judicial College from 1987 to 2010 and has served as a faculty member for legal exchanges for approximately 20 foreign countries. He received his B.A. from Stanford University in 1971 and his J.D. from Harvard Law School in 1974.

Judge Fogel has received numerous accolades, including the President's Award for Outstanding Service to the California Judiciary from the California Judges Association, the Vanguard Award for notable contributions to intellectual property law from the State Bar of California, and, most recently, the Samuel E. Gates Litigation Award from the American College of Trial Lawyers, which is given from time to time to recognize "a lawyer who epitomizes ethical conduct, integrity, collegiality, and professionalism."

Among his major areas of interest are judicial ethics, judicial administration, judicial decision making (including effective ways to teach judges about unconscious bias and the impact of emotion), and judicial wellness.
