

Hanna Umanskiy Ortiz

Hanna Umanskiy Ortiz is an Education Specialist at the Federal Judicial Center (FJC). She is responsible for multimedia production, including interviews, audio podcasts, and interactive online projects on various judicial topics. Ms. Ortiz also actively participates in the Center's international collaboration, briefing international judges and court staff on aspects of adult and distance education.

Ms. Ortiz holds an M.A. in Adult Education, magna cum laude, M.P.S. in Journalism and Media Studies, M.B.A., and is currently working on her Doctorate in online education and technology.

Louis F. Ortenzio, Jr.

Education: B.A., Gettysburg College, 1975; PhD., University of Maryland School of Medicine.

Professional Experience: 2019 - present, Executive Director, Clarksburg Mission; 2018 - present, Harrison County Recovery Coach Association; 2017 - present, Peer Recovery Coach, WVBHFF; 2015 - present, Treatment Team Member of the N.D.W. Va. - Clarksburg Drug Court; 2012 - present, State Representative for Celebrate Recovery in Harris County and Western WV.